BISHOP MUSEUM

OUTSIDE MUSEUM SHOP EXIT

1525 Bernice Street • Honolulu, HI 96817

Te Uranga O Tamanui Te Rahi / The Glowing Face of the Sun / Māui Snares the Sun • ARTIST: Rangī Kipa

This intricately carved, wooded doorway honors one of the most important feats of the pan-Pacific demigod Māui and offers viewers a chance to enter another realm. HOURS: Monday–Sunday (9am–5pm).

HAWAII THEATRE

VIP ROOM / SECOND FLOOR

1130 Bethel Street • Honolulu, HI 96813

Pā Mamua — Future Foundation • ARTIST: Solomon Enos

A floor-to-ceiling mural that imagines a cultural reckoning of future sea rise along the Honolulu coastline. HOURS: Friday, April 6 (6pm–9pm) and before and after shows.

01 | ROYAL HAWAIIAN CENTER • SIDEWALK KIOSK

The Lei Stand • ARTISTS: Hālau Hula Ka Liko O Kapalai

This non-commercial lei stand reclaims the Hawaiian tradition of making and giving lei freely and with aloha.

Features fresh and seasonal lei. HOURS: Wednesday–Monday (6pm–8pm) until all lei have been gifted.

02 | SHERATON WAIKIKI • LOBBY + RUMFIRE

Spirit of Aloha • ARTISTS: Jill Harris & Thomas Koet

A malihini interpretation of the tradition of lei giving, as a manifestation of the spirit of aloha. This sculpture was created with recycled sand from the Island of Maui.

Mo‘okapala • ARTIST: PRIME

Representing the genealogy (mo‘okū‘auhau) of time and place, this hand-stamped (kāpala) mural was created with employees and hotel guests of the Sheraton Waikiki. PRIME’s mural reflects on what connects us — the sky, ocean, water, and land.
